

Model Cards: A Short Guide

A model card documents how a machine learning model was trained and evaluated. It lists the intended uses, the training data, and known limitations.

Fairness evaluation

Report metrics separately for each demographic group, not only in aggregate.

Large gaps between groups should be listed under known limitations.